APRIL 2010

Gloria Dei Lutheran Youth and Confirmation Programs

“Developing young, spiritually alive disciples of Christ”

When is it a good time to share our faith? Has an opportunity ever come up to share your faith but you didn't speak up? Why? Or did you? I talk openly about why I believe in God and my relationship with Jesus, it's like talking about my favorite drum, or the bike ride I just went on the day before...there's something about sharing. Do you ever listen to friends share their faith or views about religion? It's neat isn't it, everybody has an opinion whether they say so or not. How awesome is it, that God our creator gives us the choice to be in a relationship with him. Some of us say yes, while others say no. When I really think about why I am connected to Christ, I think about how free I feel to be a part of everything that is going on in the world without having to be concerned about what the world "society" thinks about me while I'm here. Try this in the next week get into a two sided conversation with your friends about their views and share your own...it's ok if you get asked hard questions. Not every one person has the answers. Peace be the journey...
